Provident Scholarship Fund: Allied Health & Undergraduate Scholarship

The Provident Scholarship fund draws from the hospital's rich history, dating back to founder Dr. Daniel Hale Williams, to uplift and support diversity in healthcare. The fund is supported by Cook County Health, Cook County Offices Under the President and its Project Rainbow initiative designed to address education barriers.

The Allied Health & Undergraduate Scholarship is partnered with support from the Cook County Health Foundation. This scholarship provides awards to Allied Health and undergraduate students in select programs. The Allied Health & Undergraduate Scholarship will support awardees who demonstrate a commitment to serving the healthcare needs of the underrepresented communities in Cook County. Students are eligible for a one-time award of $10,000.

What are the qualifying academic programs?

Enrollment in an allied health or nursing undergraduate program that results in degree, certification or license in one of the below areas;

- Dentistry Programs (Dental Assistant & Dental Hygienist)
- Respiratory Therapy
- Radiology Technologist
- Nursing (LPN & RN)

What are the eligibility requirements for the Allied Health & Undergraduate Scholarship?

- Must be a permanent resident of Cook County (Home address must be in Cook County, cannot use school housing address as proof of residency)

What address should I use on my application?

Please use your home address, do not use school address. Scholars are required to be a permanent resident of Cook County.

How is financial need decided?

The Student Aid Report (SAR) from FAFSA will be used to determine financial need. The main factor considered is your Expected Family Contribution (EFC). To qualify EFC cannot exceed $2500, FAFSA must have been completed to apply.

How are funds disbursed?

Funds are paid directly to the educational institution and/or specified creditor(s) associated with educational expenses. Scholars will be required to complete an Allocation Summary.

Do scholars need to pay the scholarship back?

The scholarship is a financial award for a student to further their education and is not required to be repaid.

Who should I contact if I have additional questions?

providentscholarshipfund@cookcountyhhs.org. This email should only be used to inquire about questions not covered in this FAQ. Any applications sent to this email will not be accepted or reviewed.

How are scholars selected?

Scholars are selected based on eligibility requirements and financial need and scored on quality of documents submitted: resume, letters of recommendation and personal statement. All prompts should be addressed in your personal statement.

How and when will I be notified if I received a scholarship?

Selected scholars are sent an email notification of the award decision. Scholars must promptly follow instructions to accept scholarship by deadline provided. Notification of awards will be sent out starting Tuesday July 5, 2022.
